

Communication Strategy

Policy

Guild Training is committed to ensuring that clear channels of communication exist both within and between the State Branches and the National Secretariat.

This policy and procedure has been developed by the Pharmacy Guild of Australia as an all-inclusive document for delivery of training and assessment services in the state/territory Branches and should be read in conjunction with the individual state/territory Branch policies and procedures.

Procedure: actions and responsibilities

Action	Responsibility
The National Secretariat is responsible for implementing, maintaining and managing the informal and formal communication channels and strategies used by Guild Training. Communication is facilitated using a number of methods:	National Secretariat
E-mail E-mail is the most common and immediate form of communication used by the National Secretariat and the Branches. E-mails from the Head – Guild Learning and Development are directed to Branch Directors. It is anticipated that Branch Directors would forward these e-mails to their Training Managers for discussion or review. E-mails from the National Training Manager or from the Guild Learning and Development will be forwarded to Training Managers. It is anticipated that Training Managers would forward these e-mails to Branch Directors for discussion or the appropriate Guild Training team member for action. Any e-mail documentation that is relevant to policies, procedures, documentation and processes is retained by the National Secretariat.	National Secretariat State Branches
Training Managers Teleconferences The Branch Training Managers are responsible for managing the agenda, chairing and minutes of the Training Managers Teleconferences. Training Managers Teleconferences generally occur monthly. During these teleconferences, the Training Managers will focus on discussing the strategic direction of training, and sharing ideas and resources to improve the operational management of the RTO. Records of teleconferences and decisions made are retained by the National Secretariat.	National Secretariat State Branches
Training Managers Meetings Meetings occur as required. During these meetings the Training Managers will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Discuss operation issues • Undertake risk management activities • Complete planning activities • Share resources Agendas and minutes of the meetings are retained by the National Secretariat.	National Secretariat State Branches
